WHAT'S GOING ON.

FIVE MINUTES WITH THE BIG NEWS OF THE WORLD.

A Woman's Strange Infatuation.

A curious affair, rivalling the most sensational piece of fletion ever produced, occurred last week at Pittsburg. Two brothers named Biddle were confined in the county jail number sentence of death for killing an officer. They were burglars and desperate men. Last week Thursday, they feismed six hows and when the attention to the county is all the county jail number sentence of death for killing an officer. They were burglars and desperate men. Last week Thursday, they feigned sickness, and when the attendants came they seized and locked them up, passed through windows, the grates of which had been sawed, and made their excape. The warden's wife, Mrs. Soffel, disappeared with them. They were tracked and pursued, and next day eight officers came up with the Biddles and Mrs. Soffell, who had stolen a team and were trying to get out of the section. Shots were exchanged and both the Biddles fell badly wounded. Mrs. Soffell, when she saw their plight, shot herself in the breast. The three were made prisoners. None of The three were made prisoners. None of the officers were harmed. Both the Bid-dles have since died. Mrs. Soffel will re-cover. It seems that she became infatu-sted with one of the Biddles, and with her aid saws were smuggled in and the plan for escare made.

Oleomargarine Legislation.

Oleomargarine Legislation.

The House is now debating the new bill designed to prevent the sale of oleomargarine colored to resemble butter. There is a strong opposition to it from the cattle-raising states, but it will pass by a good majority. Mr. Haskins of Vermont is one of the leaders in support of the bill, and made his maiden speech on it Monday. It is expected that a vote will be reached to day. Cuban reciprocity has been forced to the rear in the Hoeise, to make way for the tariff reduction measure that has been reported from the ways and means committee. The bill removes all the war taxes imposed in '95, with one exception. It is expected to lower the revenues about seventy millions. The House has passed the bill making the census bureau permanent. The Senate has spent the week in discussion of the Philippine tariff bill, which has taken a wide range and been marked by much acrimony. The Senate hvestigation of the Philippine question has begun. Gov. Taft was the first witness.

British Decline Dutch Offer.

British Decline Dutch Offer.

The British government has replied to the Dutch premier, who offered to bring the British and Boer belligerents together that they might consult as to terms of peace, that if the Boers wish to treat for peace they can do so, but they must deal directly with the British authorities in South Africa. Great Britain will not accept the intercention of any foreign power. Efforts to get the United States to urge peace with Great Britain have been renewed.

Old-Fashioned Blizzard.

A very severe anow storm swept over New York and northern New England Sunday and Monday. The accompanying wind produced deep drifts that made railroad traffic and team travel almost an impossibility in many places. The snow impossibility in many places. The snow was on a level with ear tops, and in New York state it is reported that people had to leave their houses from second-story windows. Along the Jersey coast, much damage was done to shipping.

Schley's Lost Card.

President Rossvelt last week made public the appeal of Admiral Schley from the findings of the board of inquiry, also the counter-argument by counsel for the department. The main contention of Schley was that Dewey's findings should be substituted for those of the majority, thus ving credit for the Sant ago victory to Schley as commander of the fleet.

Notes of the Fighters.

A contest between Jeffries and Fitzsimmons has been arranged to take place in San Francisco. The Jeffries-Sharkey match is off. Jack Boot of Chicago defeated George Gardner of Lowell in a boxing contest at San Francisco last week. Gardner had the worst of it, and lost on a foul.

Prince at Grand Opera.

Among the festivities in New York for the entertainment of Prince Henry will be a night of grand opera, with all the stars taking part. Considerable embarrassment has been caused by the refusal of some of the box holders to give up their boxes for the accommodation of the prince and party.

Wood Pleads For Cuba.

Gov.-Gen. Governor Wood of Cuba has sent to the United States Senate a plea in favor of lower duties on sugar and tobacco, to enable the Cuban industries to live. He says these encouragements must be given or Cuba will be ruined and strife may ensue.
